

Aerator Units

Our Aerators are application dependant, designed and manufactured in Cape Town to custom specifications in order to meet chemical oxygen demand of any effluent. They are of the low-speed, high torque variety, providing excellent pumping rates for fine solids suspension and superior wire to water oxygen transfer rates. They can be either pontoon or platform mounted.

